Chicago Meat Authority Inducts New Members into the CMA Burgundy Circle and Platinum Ring

Chicago, IL Jan 22, 2008 – Chicago, IL. Chicago Meat Authority (CMA) is proud to induct 43 new members into the CMA Burgundy Circle and Platinum Ring. Members of the Burgundy Circle are celebrating their fifth anniversary with CMA, and members of the Platinum Ring are celebrating 10 years of valued service.

“Our employees are integral in CMA’s ability to execute our strategic vision,” said Jordan Dorfman, President and CEO of Chicago Meat Authority, “We couldn’t be more proud that so many fine men and women have chosen to make CMA their home.”

The Burgundy Circle consists of 163 members, over 54% of the entire workforce. Chicago Meat Authority’s quality products are the results from the experience of our hard working staff, something that no machine could duplicate. Besides the “fine craftsmanship” these employees put into their work, they also guide new employees in learning their trade.
