Chicago Meat Authority Inducts 29 New Members into the Burgundy Circle and Platinum Ring

Chicago, IL 3/2/2009 - Chicago Meat Authority (CMA) is proud to induct 29 new members into the CMA length of service recognition programs known as the Burgundy Circle and Platinum Ring. Members of the Burgundy Circle are celebrating their fifth anniversary with CMA, and members of the Platinum Ring are celebrating 10 years of valued service.

“Our employees are the backbone of our company, whose experience makes CMA Your Authority on Quality Meats,” said Jordan Dorfman, President and CEO of Chicago Meat Authority, “We couldn’t be more proud of our dedicated workforce that have made CMA their home.”

The Burgundy Circle consists of 172 members, over 57% of the workforce and the Platinum Ring includes 53 members making up over 17% of the workforce. Chicago Meat Authority’s quality products are the results from the experience of our hard working staff, something that no machine could duplicate. Besides the “fine craftsmanship” these employees put into their work, they also guide new employees in learning their trade.
